3.4. Sponsorship

Securing sponsorship is the responsibility of the DCAS Conveners and the Chair of the Academic Surgery Committee, with support from the Manager, Research and Academic Surgery and approval by the General Manager of RAAS. If no sponsorship is secured the course will not be held. Any sponsorship obtained to support this course must in no way compromise or detract from the educational content of the course.

3.5. Registration Fees

Fellows and Trainees will be charged an attendance fee for the course based on cost recovery of the direct costs associated with the course, less the funds secured from sponsorship.

The following complimentary registration categories apply and are absorbed in the DCAS event budget:

be incorporated fully into the ASC.

The DCAS Chairs will communicate this information to RACS CEM. Following this, all AAS visitor incorporation into the ASC is managed by the RACS CEM, who will disseminate to the relevant ASC Section Conveners so AAS Visitors are selected to present by Section Conveners. The level of participation is at the discretion of the Section Convener but will be encouraged by RACS CEM. The RACS CEM will then provide feedback to the level of incorporation of AAS visitors into the ASC to the DCAS Chairs and Academic Surgery Committee Chair at least 8 months in advance
